

Map of Methods (March 2012)

The map presents the methods which are being used within the CIM research group Reflexive Practices of Organizing. The stars indicate how the specific research projects relate to the method topography. Audio-visual participant observation as well as discourse analysis and mapping techniques are currently shaping the main elevations within this landscape.

 Universität St.Gallen www.shss.unisg.ch/kim

- | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
|  | Performing water markets in Kenya (Tim Lehmann) |  | Omnisensoring Ethical Fashion (Kim Poldner) |
|  | (Re)assembling a social entrepreneurship movement (Michel Bachmann) |  | Waste studies (Roy Sellars) |
|  | (Dis)Organizing in the Face of Uncertainty, Risk and Urgency (Björn Müller) |  | Counseling and Intervening in Individuals and Organisations (Dörte Resch) |
|  | Organizing Atmospheres (Christoph Michels) |  | Design Fiction: Entrepreneurial Strategies in Artistic Creation (Simon Grand) |
|  | Coaching as Organizational Practice (Florian Schulz) |  | Organizing Health Care (Harald Tuckermann) |
|  | Organizing the Olympics (Martin Müller) |  | (Un)Doing Gender in Nurseries (Julia Nentwich) |
|  | Performing Organizational Creativity (Chris Steyaert) |  | Identity Constructions of Ex-Consultants (Patrizia Hoyer) |
|  | Disclosing New Worlds (Laurent Marti) | | |